Evidence and blockers

- Local prototype, browser QA, scenario validation, study materials, analysis gates, reports, and working-package separation are maintained as artifacts.
- External blockers remain: genuine YouTube demo URL, real participants, consented recordings, task/questionnaire/interview evidence, and any comparable current-practice baseline.
- The official Weekly Report template is not present locally and is not claimed as satisfied.
- No participant identities, demographics, quotes, recordings, timing values, or questionnaire answers are invented.

Next weekly checkpoint

Confirm ownership, run sessions, verify recordings and timestamped feedback, ingest real evidence, rerun analysis, and replace only evidence-backed gates.
